B. Rangaswamaiya, Esq., B A, B L., Secretary to Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Revenue Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Arsikere Minor Municipal Council represent that the present single Sanitary Inspector at the disposal of both the Municipal Council and the Taluk Board, cannot do justice to both the works under his charge especially in view of the increasing volume of work in this progressive Municipality They therefore propose to employ a whole time Sanitary Inspector for the Municipality exclusively on a pay of Rs30 + 10 per mensem to be met out of provision, Rs 8401 under E - 2 "Provision for additional establishment" in the current year's sanctioned budget

2 As the question involved some loss to the District Board in the shape of contribution paid by the Municipality towards the pay and pension of the Sanitary Inspector it was discussed both by the Finance Committee and the District Board and a resolution recorded as follows -

"The District Board have no objection to the entertainment of a separate, Sanitary Inspector for Arsikere Municipality"

3 I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the Municipality employing a whole time Sanitary Inspector as above stated have the honor to be,

Sir,
Your most obedient servant

Deputy Commissioner,
Hassan District
